He ac-"See here; is there more than one way to get out of this store?" Mr. Be Deli assured him there were several outlets, and asked him if he was looking for one. "If you are the store-keeper," said greeny hurrledly, "I would like to have you tell me if this bill not furnish them. But more funds still are is good." He handed the clark a $10 bill on some bank in New Brunswick, which the briefest glance satisfied him was counterfeit. Greapy was informed that the bill was worthless in a commercial sence, save as paper rags. When he recovered from his astonishment sufficiently to speak, he told the clerk good one, and we trust the call will be get how he came by it. He was standing on the side-walk in front of the house, about half an hour before, when a gentlemanly appearing man came up to him with the bill in his hand and asked him to give him small bills for it. He gave him With the following addends to the address:

FROM WASHINGTON. The Decline of Gold-The Campaign in New Hampshire--

Personal. [To the Chicago Tribune.] WASHINGTON, March 5.

There is a general rejoicing here over he sudden tumble of gold in New York, though the explanation of its cause cannot be made as satisfactory as would be desirable. The bogus reports about the capture of Vicksburg, Charleston and Sawannah gave an impetus to the downward movement, but it began by Congressional legislation, just before adjournment, taxing and curtailing gold speculation. Nev- RIOT IN DETROIT ertheless, nothing is apparent that can fully explain the fearful fall to-day, except increasing confidence in recent financial measures, and in Mr. Chase's financial nausgement.

[Special to Chicago Tribune.] The Loss of the Indianola -- Various Rumors Regarding her Capture--Rebel Dispatches.

CAIRO, March 5. The latest Young's Point reports circulated are that the Indianola had been distinctly seen by means of a field glass, lying along side the Queen of the West, under the guns at Trenton. Others believe the reports of the man who escaped when she was captured true: that the Indianola sunk; but the majority seem to think at General Grant's headquarters that the gunboat was not materially injured.

The Bulletin has advices from Vicksburg up to Saturday morning, Feb. 28th. Some inaccuracies appeared in the first statement of the capture of the Indianola. It appeared the Indianola was placed in a bad position and badly managed by the pilot. The Queen of the West, Webb and | gress Music butted against her. Resolutions and fithern except the Emma, which being of heavy power to pass a law imposing such an oath. He proceeded to argue that it would be plauding the course of President Lincoln.

Mr Summer repeated that there was a statute of Congress requiring the each to be taken. The question was whether they would obey from not. To go into Executive session before taking the each was to disregard the law of Congress.

The Senate went into Executive session. The Senate went into Executive session before taking the each was to disregard the law of Congress.

The President pro. tem., Mr. Foote, said he was prepared to take the oath, and called upon Mr. Foster to administer it, which he did. It is as follows:

"I solemnly awear that I have never voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel, or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostilities thereto; that I have neither sought, nor acceptance of any office whatever, under any suthority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I officers and crew, by the Confederate tions of any other steamers Queen of the West and Webb, any authority, or pretended authority, steamers Queen of the West and Webb, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any person, government, authority, power or constitution, with the United States hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear that to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully perform the duty I sm about to enter on, so help me God."

The President pro tem, then directed the names to be called of the Senators ele and rejected since the passage of the law, namely, second of July Isst. It was ad-ministered to the following named sensors : Mesers Bowden, Buckalew, Morgan, prague, Wright, Morrill, Wade, Sumner ixon, Hicks, Chandler and Harding. Mr. Johnson explained that according o his interpretation of the Constitution, Senator was not a civil officer and therefore did not fall within the limits of the statute, and besides the act was retrospective in its operations. He, however, had not the slightest objection to take DRIED APPLES. - 22 BBLS DRIED Mr. Hendricks, adopting the explanation of Mr. Johnson, also subscribed to it. Messrs. Doolittle and Bayard, elected since the passage of the law, were absent from the Chamber, and Messrs. Ramsey and Conness have not yet arrived in Washington, Adjourned.

A grand meeting of loyal people of this city, irrespective of party, was held to-night at Cooper's Institute, attended by over 4,000 people inside and the same num-ber outside. The meeting was presided over by Mayor Opdyke, General Scott being too sick to be present. Speeches were made by James T. Brady, John Van Buren, D. N. Hitchcock, Judge Daly, D. D. Field, Hon. Charles Gould and other Expressions of unswerving loyalty to the Union were enunciated by the speak-ers and most vociferously endorsed by the multitude, and the enthusiasm for the old flag was most marked and emphatic.

FROM TRNNESSEE. Nashville, March 6.
There was fighting all day yesterday between Van Dorn's command, and a force of three regiments of infantry, about 500 cavalry, and one battery, at Spring Hill. 13 miles south of Franklin. Colonel Coburn's three regiments of infantry were cut to pieces and captured by the rebel forces. They fought desperately, but their ammunition became exhausted, and the Pederals, overpowered by superior numbers were either killed or captured. The cav-alry and artillery got off safely. No reinforcements from General Gilbert at Franklin, reached the scene of action: There were seven regiments of Federals as that place.

Van Dorn is reported to have 18,000 men under his command.

SECOND DESPATCH. Further details of the fight at Franklin yesterday have been received. Five regie ments of infantry and one battery, with the 9th Pennsylvania and 2d Michigan Cavalry, all under command of Colonel Cohurn, of the 33d 'ndiana, advanced on spirited skirmisbes occurred during the day. Our troops are camping four miles

On the 5th a movement was apparent and during some disorder on our left, they suddenly opened on our men with three batteries from different points at the same time. The enemy also appeared on each great determination, with heavy loss on both sides, and resulted unfortunately to our troops. A large part of the 33d Indiana, 19th Michigan, 22d Wisconein, and 85th In-diana, with the most of their commissioned officers, were captured.

Our artillery and cavalry were success fully withdrawa. The 124th Ohio was out but returned without loss.

The refels have fallen back. Their force was infantry and heavier artillery than Gen. Gilbert's non-action in failing to ceinferce Col. Colbourn is severely censured by the officers and men. FURTHER BY THE ARABIA. New York, March 6. The captain of an English steamer which arrived at Gibralter writes as fol-On the 8th of February I passed the 290, or Alabama, or at any rate a suspicious vessel very much like her. She was steering south. On the 10th I heard re-ports and saw the flashes of guns; I also saw the bursting of shells. I was distant about five miles; it was evidently a conflashes of the guns at 8 p. w., and from 10 to 11:30 P. M. The fighting was very heavy and the exchange of shots rapid. As could not see the vessels I cannot give any forther information. There was all imposing demonstration at the Ampitheater, Liverpool, on the 19th ult., in support of the Emancipation Proc-

Being foiler in the attempt to get possession of the ne gro, the mob perpetrated most horrible out-rages upon colored persons residing in the vicinity of the jail, houses gutted and burned, inmates maltreated, and in many instances killed. Ten or aftern lives have burned. All the available military here, and a regiment in the interior of the State, have been sent for. A vigorous attempt will now be made to quell the rlot.

FROM WASHINGTON. Washington March 6. The President sent a large number of cominations to the Senate to-day, principally Major and Brigadier Generals.— Among the civilians are Hon. Joseph Lewis, of Pennsylvania, to be Commissioner of Revenue, and Hon. John F. Potter, exmember of Congress of Wisconsin, to be Governor of Dakotoh. Owing to the large number of nominations rendered necessa-ry by the recent laws, and the privately expressed purpose of Senators to closely scrutinize the qualifications and loyalty of the candidates, the probability is, that the session will be extended to the close of next week.
